

Langley High School
Advanced Placement Summer Workshop

On Thursday, August 27, 2009, Langley High School will conduct a one-day boot camp for new and returning students taking one or more Advanced Placement (AP) courses during the 2009-10 school year. The day is in two parts: in the morning, there will be sessions covering reading for an AP class, writing for an AP class, and test-taking skills; in the afternoon, there will be breakout sessions for individual classes with AP teachers. Lunch will be provided for students who sign up for the full day.
